"Sunny Jim" Sherman's death will cause sorrow all over the nation. On occasions like this the American people rise above politics. Vice President Sherman's genial personality made him friends among all parties. He was respected and esteemed by even his political opponents. Surely this has been a campaign of tragedies.

Secretary of Treasury McVeagh with one swoop abolished the public drinking cup from railroad cars, vessels and other conveyances of interstate traffic, and from depots and waiting rooms of common carriers. The order is effective immediately. It is the result of an investigation by the United States Health service.

The Republican Committee will meet Nov. 12 to select a candidate to be voted for as Sherman's successor. Hadley, Borah and Cummings are being mentioned for what will only be a complimentary vote.

There are probably more people, white and black, bearing the names of Johnson and Boyd than any others in the city. The new city directory contains 84 Johnsons and 81 Boyds.

Mrs. Frances Folsom Cleveland, widow of the former President, will shortly be married to Thos. J. Preston, a professor in Wells College. He is 50 years old and she is 48.

The prognosticators estimate that 16,445,000 votes will be cast Tuesday, 630,000 of them by women. This is about 65 per cent of the total number of eligible voters.

California, North Dakota and Wisconsin will go for Wilson by Republican votes that will turn to him to beat Roosevelt. Taft's name is not on the ball in California.

State Senator Joe Bosworth and Charles Cook, a Democratic newspaper man, had a "scrap" on the street in Middlesboro, over politics, but no blood was drawn.

A government bulletin says the cotton boll weevil has destroyed 2,550,000 bales of cotton valued at $125,000,000 since its first appearance 20 years ago.

The Wireless Station at San Diego, Cal., caught messages Wednesday night from Vera Cruz, Mex., Panama, Florida, Cuba and from a point in Russian Siberia.

Fifteen thousand people yelled themselves hoarse at Col. Roosevelt's speech Wednesday night, in New York, his first speech since being shot.

A man who said he was from Kentucky spent the day in Chicago Tuesday looking for Jack Johnson. He failed to find the negro pugilist.

Gov. Wilson was given a great ovation in a big rally at Madison Square Garden Thursday night. He was cheered for 63 minutes.

Sixty women were fined for wearing hat pins that protruded too far at Sidney, N. S. W. All went to jail rather than pay their fines.

Gov. Wilson says he will go to bed at nine o'clock Tuesday night and read the returns in his morning paper.

The Henderson Journal is trying to run the kickers out of town and form a boosters' organization.

Lafayette will vote for a Board of Trustees Tuesday. There is but one ticket in the field.

Former State Senator F. M. Hutcheson, of Henderson, died Wednesday, aged 64 years.

Cuba had a presidential election yesterday and disturbances were looked for.

Twenty-eight states will elect Governors. Four have already elected this year.

VICE PRESIDENT
SHERMAN DEAD

Twenty-seventh Occupant of Nation's Second Office.

SENATE WITHOUT A HEAD.

In Event of President's Death
Secretary Knox Would Succeed Him.

Utica, N. J., Oct. 31.—After a long illness, growing acute in the few days, Vice President James Schoolcraft Sherman died of Bright's disease at his home in Utica, N. Y., at 9:42 last night. He had been sinking since early morning, but rallied about 7 p. m., the apparent improvement being of short duration only. Mr. Sherman was the twenty-seventh Vice President and a candidate on the Republican ticket for re-election.

He is survived by a widow and three sons.

He entered Congress in 1887 and served until his election as Vice President.

His death leaves the country without a Vice President pro tem, the Republicans having failed to agree on one after Senator's Frye's death.

Should President Taft die or resign before March, Secretary Knox would succeed him.

Mr. Sherman was the fifth Vice President whose death in office shocked the nation. Vice President King died during Pierce's administration; Vice President Wilson during that of Grant; Vice President Hendricks during that of Cleveland, and Vice President Hobart during McKinley's first term.

The electoral college can vote for any man for Vice President, who may be named by the Republican committee.

The funeral will be held Saturday afternoon at the First Presbyterian church and will be attended by President Taft and members of the cabinet.

HELD THEIR OWN.

Democrats Registered 87 and Republicans 72.

The supplemental registration the first three days of this week added 159 names to the books, 87 Democrats and 72 Republicans, as nearly as could be estimated. This gives the Republicans 97 majority over the Democrats with 92 Independents and 8 Progressives. The total of 1,831 is 237 short of the total of 1911.

Smithson-Millen.

Robt. A. Smithson, son of James A. Smithson, of this county, and Miss Cora Millen, formerly of Todd county, were married in Howell, Ind., at 6 o'clock yesterday morning. The young people left at once for New York City, to be absent ten days, and on their return, they will reside in Howell, where Mr. Smithson holds a position with the L. & N. railroad company. The groom's father, and his sister, Mrs. Maxey Blythe, of this city, attended the wedding.

Two warships have been sent to San Domingo to keep the peace.

CALL FOR PEACE TALK.

Adrianople Still Holds Out--
Bulgars Won Decisive Battle at Luleburgas.

London, Nov. 1.—A four-days' battle in Thrace has ended in the triumph of the Bulgarian commander-in-chief, Savoff, whose skillful strategy has probably brought to a close one of the shortest and most remarkable wars on record.

A great Turkish army, estimated at over 200,000 men, has been defeated and is in retreat.

Constantinople is believed to be at the mercy of the victorious Bulgarian army, and a council, sitting at the porte, is discussing the advisability of suing for peace.

Such is the news which comes from Constantinople.

It is only a fortnight since Turkey declared war. The first week of the campaign closed with the dramatic fall of Kirk Kilissh, fully revealing for the first time the disorganization, bad morale and inefficient commissariat of the Turkish army. Today that army is defeated, routed within fifty miles of Constantinople, and possibly its retreat within the capital's line of defenses is cut off.

Adrianople still holds out but has lost its importance now that the Turks have met their Sedan at Luleburgas.

It is believed a peace settlement will be arranged either by the porte suing for peace or through intervention of the powers.

W. H. Blakeley Dead.

W. H. Blakeley, son of the late Dr. Will Blakeley, died in Nashville a few days ago and the interment took place in Bowling Green, where the family have resided for some years. The deceased was a nephew of Mr. E. F. Blakeley, of this city. He leaves a wife, formerly Miss Lola Jones, of Russellville.

Married in Memphis.

Ben J. Wilson and Miss Mollie Blakeley, daughter of the late James Blakeley, were married in Memphis Wednesday. Rev. I. N. Strother performed the ceremony. The couple left at once for Asheville, N. C., and on their return will reside at the Blakeley home, near Gracey.

Killed Her Husband.

Mrs. Mary Swafford shot and killed her husband Aaron Swafford, near Chattanooga, in a desperate duel with shot guns. She fired from under a table after Swafford had shot another woman who was trying to protect his wife. The woman was not arrested.

Modern Miracle.

A Frenchman named Peter Beaumont, deaf for 22 years, is said by Abbot Garnier, a famous divine of Paris, to have had his hearing miraculously restored by the Pope in Rome.

GEN. F. M. BASS

Will Deliver Elks' Memorial
Address Dec. 1.

Gen. F. M. Bass, of Nashville, has accepted an invitation to deliver the memorial address for the Elks of Hopkinsville Lodge No. 545, on Sunday afternoon, Dec. 1. Gen. Bass is an attorney of high reputation and a fluent and eloquent speaker. He is a brother of Mrs. N. F. Dortch, of this city. The committee in charge of the memorial services this year is composed of C. S. Jarrett, L. H. Davis and W. R. Wicks.

COURT OVER

And Judge Hanbery Will Take a Week's Rest.

The past six weeks' term of Circuit Court has been rather a strenuous one. Judge Hanbery has rid the docket of many troublesome old cases and disposed of a large number of perplexing new ones. After casting his vote for Wilson and Marshall Tuesday he will rest up the balance of the week and then go to Murray to open his court there.

HEBRON CHURCH

The Revival Services Will Close
Tomorrow Night.

The revival services at Hebron Methodist church will close tomorrow night. Rev. Pat Davis, of Russellville, has been assisting the pastor, Rev. G. W. Lyon, during the two weeks services. While there has not been a great number of conversions, the meetings have been a great spiritual uplift to the members of the church.

Extra Police Saw Spooks In Arrests.

The school boys and their friends had doubtless arranged "a full program" for fun Thursday night, but the heavy rain storm kept them inside. They were out for a short time, as some of the citizens discovered Friday morning. They were out on Main street and were silently at work for a short period. They imagined that Judge Bush had no use for a front gate and carried it off and left it with a neighbor. Col. Henry's lawn swing, which had done good service during the summer, was turned over and porch chairs in that section were packed about and left at different places.

The young men of the city gave a Halloween dance en masque at Hotel Latham and Miss Grace Richards' party at her home on South Virginia street was a most enjoyable function with the younger set. Little Miss Cornelia Weeks postponed her Halloween party until last night.

To Send To England.

The Imperial Tobacco Company headquarters in England has sent a telegram to the company here ordering it to gather the relics and Indian skeletons recently unearthed on their property on Water street, and send them to England, where they will be examined by great authorities and placed in a museum. The general opinion is it is a wonderful collection, dating back into ages far before the Indians made their appearance on the earth.—Henderson Gleaner.

Democrats Enthusiastic.

Mr. J. B. Allensworth has returned from a tour of Trigg and Calloway counties, where he made sixteen campaign speeches for the Democratic ticket in ten days. Mr. Allensworth was greeted by large crowds on each occasion and he reports much enthusiasm. He will deliver an address to the voters of Caldwell county today, on the occasion of the Democratic rally at Princeton.

Stanley Pleased Them.

It has been many years since a speaker in Elizabethtown made such a profound impression on his audience as did Hon. Owsley Stanley, of the Second District, who sent thrill after thrill into the hearts of the 500 Democrats who heard him at the Court House Saturday afternoon. His masterly effort emphasized the fact that in ability as a campaign orator he is second to none in Kentucky.—Elizabethtown News.

Film Burned Out.

A film burned out at the Princess Thursday evening and though no excitement was caused, it left the crowd nervous. A little later the storm came up and there was a display of electricity about the machine. Then a loud clap of thunder came and the audience became panicky, but cooler heads quieted their nerves and the show was resumed.

Take It With You.

Voters in the city should bear in mind that they cannot vote without showing their registration certificate. If you go to the polls without it you will have to go back and get it. If you have lost it you will have to go to the Clerk's office and buy a duplicate. Better look it up now and have it ready Tuesday morning.

DEMOCRATIC RALLY DAY

Gathering Of The Unterrified
At The Court House This Afternoon

HON. G.O. LETCHER TO SPEAK

The Democrats Will Hear Some Old Time Oratory For Wilson.

Hon. Gibney Oscar Letcher, assistant Democratic elector for the Second Congressional district, will speak at the Court House this afternoon for Wilson & Marshall. He is Vice Chairman of the Young Men's Willson and Marshall League of Kentucky and comes recommended as an able and eloquent young man and a good speaker. His speech is to be a feature of the Democratic Rally at the Court House this afternoon and he will no doubt be heard by a big crowd.

Local Paragraphs

The contractors for building the new streets are making such rapid progress that the output of three companies is necessary to supply it with stone.

Don't forget that Hon. Oscar Letcher, of Henderson, will speak at the court house this afternoon in the interest of the Democratic party.

The Democrats are preparing for a grand final rally at the court house next Monday night.

In reserving players for the K.I.T. League next year "Old Clarksville" seems to have signed the best of her pennant winners for future use. They have reserved the unlucky number 13. But there is not much consolation in that for the other teams. We must have better material than the last year's men reserved.

Democrats, begin right now to look up your registration ticket. If you wait until Tuesday your wife may not be able to find it for you.

It is gratifying to know that the band has realized enough in the past months to pay off its indebtedness, which at one time was uncomfortably close to $1,000. It is the best musical organization the city ever had, and long may it stick together.

As usual, the demand for cheap cottages is beyond the supply.

It is about all over now except the voting.

A man remarked the other day that we have had the first Indian summer for 17 years.

Killed His Sister.

Clarksville, Tenn., Oct. 30.—Miss Amanda Hale was accidentally shot and instantly killed Monday by her brother, Louis Hale, at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John N. Hale, four miles south of the city. The dead girl was 16 years old and her brother is about 20. He stumbled and fell with a .38 caliber revolver.

AMUSEMENTS.

"Seven Days," the attraction at Holland's Opera House tonight, is a laugh from start to finish, a howl of delight from first to last, but throughout the mirth, the keen wit, the sidesplitting situations, is sentiment and romance and man's love for woman as revealed in the modern world of fashion. It is fashionable sentiment, so it carries itself blithely and is vastly jolly to behold. Messrs. Wagghals & Kemper, producers of "Seven Days," are sending the comedy to this city with the company that recently carried it to the unprecedented record of a third year on Broadway. The entire New York Astor Theatre cast and production will be seen.

post on top. Put a thin cloth around the cooler so the end dips down into the water and fasten to the nails. The cloth will drink up the water from the pan and the evaporation will keep the inner space cool. Set the cooler in a tub to catch water as it soaks through.

PERILS FACED BY AVIATORS

Unnatural Conditions Under Which They Work Responsible for Physical Ills Encountered.

Mountain climbers are subject to what is called "the mountain sickness," due to the reaction of the air and the muscular work done by climbers. Then there is the balloon disease, with analogous symptoms, but which does not appear except at very high altitudes. Newer than either of these is aeroplane or aviators' sickness. Its effects are due to the rapidity with which the maximum height is reached and the still greater speed at the descent, involving the passing from a low air pressure to a higher one. Aeroplanes sometimes reach altitudes of 10,000 feet in an hour, and here the effects on the ear, such as humming or cracking noise, are about the same as in a balloon, but the effect on the respiratory organs is different. The pilot is sooner out of breath and he feels a special kind of uneasiness.

During the descent the heart beats are of greater amplitude, but without accelerating. A quick descent in a sailing flight at a speed of 1,000 or 1,200 feet a minute or even more—since Morane descended at Havre from 8,000 feet height in six minutes—causes a feeling of a special kind or uneasiness, accompanied with humming in the ears.

Burning in the face is also felt and a severe headache; also great tendency to sleep. The movements of the body are sluggish and unskillful. These symptoms continue for some time after the landing, and the tension in the arteries is not tied to be higher than the normal.

HOUSE FLY CHAMPION PEST

Costs the American People Many Millions to Sustain Him in His Position in Life.

A bulletin of the New York city board of health presents some rather stupendous estimates of the material cost to the community of the summer invasion of flies and mosquitoes. Taking alone the loss through typhoid, of which disease the fly is recognized conspicuously as a carrier, this is placed as an annual "decrease in the vital assets of the country" of more than $350,000,000.

There are other items in the schedule of a rather startling character. The sum of $10,000,000, it is figured, is paid annually for screens upon dwellings to keep out the flies. And yet enough of them get by the screens to work $350,000,000 damage!

Evidently we have begun at the wrong end to "swat the fly" effectively. And this fact has come to be widely recognized. It is prevention of breeding, rather than extinction of the race after the annual generation has been brought forth, to which attention is directed. If the fly is not born, there is no beginning to his pestilential career; he is non-existent. And the success which has attended measures taken for the suppression of the mosquito in neighborhoods heretofore would seem to indicate the desirability of similar methods in the treatment of the house fly.

MAKING SECRET DRAWER.

A secret drawer for the deposit of money or valuables may be made as follows:

Bore a very small hole through the upright piece between the top drawers of a bureau and continue boring until the hole goes through the side of the drawer that is to be made secret. Whittle a wooden peg, and fit in the hole, neither too tight nor too loose, just so that it can be easily pushed through the hole with the little finger. The secret will not be easily discovered, because the opposite drawer will have to be pulled out altogether to push the peg in.

SAVED BY THE CONSTITUTION.

The late Thomas B. Reed, when a lad, was requested to bail out a small boat that had been leaking badly and was almost full of water. "I can't do it," replied Tom. "It's unconstitutional."

"What do you mean?" inquired the owner of the boat.

"The constitution of the United States says," replied the future statesman, "that 'excessive bail shall not be required' of any man."—Youth's Companion.

Roasted Victim Alive.

An almost unbelievably cruel happening has come to light at Hiroshima, Japan. There a man and his wife have been arrested for willfully cremating a live man. The prisoners were in charge of a crematorium, and while at work a faint voice coming out of a coffin begged for fresh air. The couple took no notice, however, and proceeded to apply fire, roasting the man alive.

HAD TO EAT THE REWARD

Woman Really Didn't Want To, But Dislike Had Entered Into the Matter.

A woman of limited means, who had never indulged in luxuries of any kind, suddenly took to roasting her callers with candied fruits and confectionery. "Don't think I am running into criminal extravagance," she explained to an intimate friend. "These things don't cost me a penny. I got them in the queerest way imaginable. One day I found a very valuable diamond brooch. It was advertised for, and a liberal reward was offered for its return. I returned the brooch.

"It belonged to the wife of a confectioner. She hemmed and hawed about the reward and lamented hard times. Before I had time to decline the reward that had been offered she said: 'Money is so dreadfully scarce. How would you like to take out the $25 in trade—so much candy a week until it is paid off? I think my husband would agree.'

"Then I changed my mind about refusing the reward. I did not particularly want the candy, but I disliked the woman so heartily that I couldn't stand it to let her off without paying something, so just to spite her I am ruining my complexion by trying to eat up that reward."

HORSE NOT DISAPPEARING.

At the present time more than 20,000,000 horses would have to be replaced before the automobile could be in absolute monopoly. In 1900 there were over thirteen and a half million horses in this country. Ten years later the number had increased to 21,040,000. A most pleasing fact is that their quality steadily improves.

CAN YOU BLAME HER?

"Why are you giving up your flat?"

"My wife's got so stout that she can't get into the kitchen, and she's sensitive about it."

As He Understood It.

A Portobello (Scotland) schoolboy has produced the champion howler of the season. The passage for paraphrase was from Kingsley: "For men must work and women must weep, though storms be sudden and waters deep, and the harbor bar be moaning." "Men and women," said the youngster, "must keep on working though the inn at the harbor is groaning for its customers."

WOULDN'T MATTER THERE.

"I don't know what to do with my son. He's so irresponsible." "Get him on the weather bureau."

Overlooked.

We wish to make some mark in life. We turn to the distant and far away, when, indeed, the things for us, the things to make our marks upon, the things to do with, grow by, to let us into the desired happiness are the little ones lying just here about our daily path—the overlooked things next to us.—J. F. Ware.

A Matter of Assurance.

"Some of your speeches," said the cynical friend, "make me think of a mathematical marvel I once knew." "In what way?" "He would dispose offhand of any problem you gave him. Nobody in the crowd was able to say whether he got the right answer, and it really didn't seem to make much difference, anyhow."

Advantage of Concrete Buildings.

It has been shown in practice that concrete buildings require less artificial light than those of slow burning mill construction. This is owing to the reflection of light from the white walls and ceilings and columns and also to the fact that it is possible to supply buildings of this character with greater window area.

Useless Worrying.

An old author has remarked that there are two things which it does no good to worry about—what you can help, and what you can't help. The latter, because fretting won't help the matter; and in the former, because it is your duty to go and help it, without fretting.

Defective Optimism.

Down in the Thousand Islands district there is published a paper called the Optimist. An Evanston man who was in the Optimist's office, the other day, writes to us that on one of the walls of the sanctum this notice was displayed: "No credit extended here."

TOOK HIM TOO LITERALLY

According to Shuster's Expressed Wishes the Offending Baker Was "Gotten Rid Of."

In his book, "The Strangling of Persia," W. Morgan Shuster, the American who took such a prominent part in Persian affairs a few months ago, tells this: "In connection with the bread supply a rather gretsome incident occurred. The chief baker of Teheran was one of the principal grafters in the 'municipal bread ring' and a great trouble maker for the treasury. He was a man of evil record, and reputed to have baked an offending subordinate to death in his own oven on more than one occasion. Speaking of him and his intrigues one day to several prominent nationalists, I remarked that he was the cause of most of the trouble with the bread supply in the capital, was feeding inferior bread to the people, and that he should be 'gotten rid of.'

"A morning or so afterward, on entering my office rather late, I was informed by one of my Persian assistants that 'the chief baker had been killed in accordance with my wishes.' I leave the reader to imagine my surprise and feelings. As a matter of fact he had been assassinated, and though I have no reason to believe that my own remarks had anything to do with his taking off, I determined thenceforth to be more cautious and precise in my language.

"The unfortunate man was a murderer, and had waxed wealthy by stealing from the poor; often starving people of the city, so no great injustice was, perhaps, done, but the interpretation put by my young Persian friend on his untimely end gave me quite a shock. From that time on the control of the bread became much easier."

Real Victors in Life.

There are people, like the Apostle Paul, whose lives have been battered and twisted, but whose spirits are radiant as the sun. You will listen in vain for wallings or complaints. These are the victors in life and lifters of the common load that humanity carries.

Explained.

Small Robert did not know the meaning of death, so when he was told that a man across the street was dead he asked his five-year-old sister what it meant to be dead. After a moment's hesitation she answered: "Why, to be dead means that—that you are all in."

Neglected Point.

Shakespeare says that we are creatures that look before and after. The more surprising that we do not look around a little, and see what is passing under our very eyes.—Carlyle.

JUST SUITS THE FAR NORTH

Peculiar Boots Worn by Men and Women in New Brunswick Are a Necessity in That Region.

A New York man has on view a pair of boots which he brought home with him from a fishing trip in New Brunswick, this season and which are a curiosity, although familiar footwear with the hunters and trappers of that faraway region.

They are known there as "moose shanks," and are the skin of a moose's hind legs, cured without tanning, and made up into the foot and leg covering as seen in this pair. The ankle part of the moose's leg skin constitutes the foot, the elbow or bend in the leg the heel and the lower part of the thigh the leg.

The hunter keeps these queer looking boots pliant by ample greasing with deer tallow, and wears them over three or four pairs of woolen stockings. They are water and cold proof in the most severe weather.

The New Yorker also brought back as a companion to these boots a pair of boots of the kind backwoods women wear in the cold and long winters of New Brunswick. These are made from the skins of a caribou's hind legs after the same manner as the moose shank boots are made, but are more delicate and ornamental.

SOYA BEAN A PERFECT FOOD

Milk, Cheese, Oil and Flour All Made From This Valuable Vegetable.

It is interesting to note in conjunction with the awakening of China that a Chinese article of food, or at any rate a vegetable product which grows most profusely in Manchuria, is attracting the serious attention of Europe and America. Authorities say that the soya bean contains more of the ingredients of a perfect food than any other one known product, and an important experiment is being tried in France, where a wide assortment of foods is being made from soya beans. They include milk, cheese, casein, oil, jellies, flour, bread, biscuits, cakes and sauces.

The use of the soya bean oil for paint purpose is established as a practical fact. While it is said that soya oil is not yet proved a perfect substitute for linseed oil in exterior painting, in interior painting it is entirely satisfactory and for some sorts of finishings, like "baking japans," it is even better than linseed oil.—Christian Science Monitor.

NOVELTY IN BOATS.

A glass bottomed boat now building at Camden, New Jersey, for use in scientific expeditions, is a distinct novelty. It is sixty feet long and has a bottom, from stem to stern, of plate glass fully an inch thick. A submarine radio light will illuminate the ocean depths beneath, and in addition there are to be incandescent lamps which can be lowered for more particular observations. It is expected that the craft will be useful in examining wrecks; meanwhile it is to be used this winter for marine exploration in the Gulf of Mexico and about the Bahama Islands. It may point the way for further development of submarine vessels, making them useful in peace as well as war.

ONCE PARTS OF A METEOR

Component Parts of Diamonds Have Thus Been Traced by Investigating Scientists.

It is perhaps not generally known that the "blue stuff" in which diamonds are found in South America is the disintegrates and disorganized mass of vast meteor that once fell from the sky. A decomposed meteor of immense size is reported to have been found in Arizona. It contains iron, nickel, platinum and diamonds. It is supposed to have been, before it decomposed, 500 feet in diameter and to have weighed several hundred million tons. They may be fragments of comets and finding themselves under the influence of the attraction of gravitation of our earth they fell upon it.

The theory is that their speed may be as high as forty or fifty miles a second. If it be a strong meteor it may be crushed into a dust by the air pressure in front of it. Even if of iron it may be torn into fragments as if an explosion had occurred in front. If, however, it is a rounded piece of iron like this lump, then it would take a tremendous pressure of air to crush it, and there is no doubt whatever that most iron meteors of rounded form would escape fracture unless they were moving at the very highest speeds.

At such speeds the air pressure developed in front of them may blow them to pieces, but if they are moving, say one-third as fast, they may, and probably will, survive unless they succumb to another action, which takes place with iron—namely, combustion.

KEEPING UP WITH TIME.

The city chap who had hired out as extra farm hand during the harvest was not quite able to respond to the 4 o'clock pounding on his bedroom door the first morning as promptly as he had anticipated. He lingered with the pillows for a quarter of an hour past the appointed time and then dragged himself out, and by half-past 4 he was stumbling across the field where the old farmer was hard at work.

"Fine morning," said the newcomer briskly.

The old fellow looked up sourly.

"Yes," he grunted; "it was."—Lippincott's.

Worth Weight in Gold.

Abingdon, Va.—Mrs. Jennie M. Call, of this place, says, "I had been troubled with female complaints, for over ten years. I could not walk or stand on my feet, and had been almost confined to the house, for a long time. I began to take Cardui, the woman's tonic, and now I can walk anywhere I want to go. Cardui is worth its weight in gold." This is a high estimate on a plain, herb medicine, yet there are thousands of women who would gladly pay this price for a remedy to relieve their suffering. Cardui has helped others. Why not you? Try it. Your druggist sells it, in $1 bottles. A vertiment.

SIDELIGHTS ON THE GRIDIRON

By WALTER H. ECKERSALL.

Former star quarterback University of Chicago team, and member for three successive years of the All-American eleven.

COST OF EQUIPPING ELEVEN.

An expert in the sporting goods market was asked how much is spent in outfitting football players in the United States during the three or four months that the season lasts. "At a conservative estimate," replied the expert, "I should say that America's annual bill for football suits, etc., would run far above the million dollar mark."

Let us go over the outfitting piece-meal of three grades of players—the one who is buying as economically as he can, the one who spending moderately, and the one who is buying the best. Exclude altogether from calculation those flimsy players whose numbers are by no means small who have suits, shoes, and guards made to order. I have known players whose trousers have cost them $15, shoes $10, and so on.

The first item in a football player's outfit is his trousers. A pair of these made of white drill and padded can be bought for 85 cents. But it will be an exceptional player who will buy them. The usual kind are those that cost $2.50. If made of moleskin the price is increased to $4 and $5.

The vest is not so much used as formerly, particularly by college teams. This is not a big item, however, running from the cheapest, at 40 cents, up to a specially reinforced one that costs $1.50.

The jerseys, which are necessary to all football players, range in price from $1.50 to $3. The sweater, though seldom worn on the gridiron, but drawn on the moment the over-heated player leaves the field, is regarded as being as necessary as the jersey. Sweaters vary in price from $2.50 to $4 and $6.

While some players use ordinary stout shoes, the great majority get special football shoes, which range in cost from $4 to $7.50. Stockings cost from 60 cents to $1.75 per pair.

These items complete the actual football suit, but there are a number of guards that are considered almost an integral part of the outfit. There is scarcely a gridiron player that does not protect his shoulders and elbows with these heavy leather covered pads of felt. A pair of shoulder guards costs 50 cents, $1, or $2.50; a pair of elbow pads 50 cents or $1.

Head guards and shin guards also are worn by many players to protect those exposed anatomical sections. Head guards vary from $1.50 to $3 and $5; shin guards from 40 cents to $1.50 and $2.

Then there are ankle braces which cost 50 cents a pair and nose masks $1.50 each. Add these items up and you will be surprised what a football outfit costs. Figuring on the lowest priced basis and allowing nothing for shoes, nose masks, or ankle braces, you get a total of $8.75. But the players who do not have special shoes and whose trousers have not cost more than 85 cents or their sweaters more than $2.50 form a small, almost negligible number.

The player who purchases the medium priced articles and who provides himself with all those enumerated, with the exception of the nose mask, will find that it subtracts $21.75 from his pocketbook; while the man who buys the highest priced articles that are regularly catalogued will pay $37.25.

A conservative estimate of the average price paid throughout the United States by high school and private academy boys and by college men would be about $15.

Football has been taken up by the navy with great enthusiasm, and there is great rivalry among the crews of the various ships as to which one can turn out the best team.

The army sometime ago unofficially followed the lead of the navy. At the various army posts throughout the country there are about 1,000 players.

The totals may be summarized as follows:

College players $17,724
High school and academy players..... $4,000
Town and athletic club players..... 3,000
Army and navy players 1,700

Total players 62,240

Now, if the average cost of each football outfit is $15, it makes a total cost of $933,600.

Allowing the usual male preponderance shown by the census, we have about 9,000,000 primary and grammar school boys. Remembering the district schools of the backwoods, where none of the pupils play football, and the private school, where a majority of the scholars play the game, we may say that there are among these youngsters about 185,000, or 2 per cent, out of the 9,000,000.

There are sporting goods firms who make a business of catering to the kid trade. A number of these firms advertise prices of these 180,000 suits, the total bill which the United States pays for its football is brought up to the tidy sum of $1,296,300.
